1978 — What kind of year has it been? There were good times and bad, and we have tried to present both. If this book brings memories which you cherish, keep it and cherish it as well.

If it does not, hold close those memories which you do long to keep — for nothing could take their place.

Sometimes we may not realize that everything we do Affects not only our lives
But touches others, too.
A single happy smile
Can always brighten up the day
For anyone who happens
To be passing by your way.
And a little bit of thoughtfulness
That shows someone you care
Creates a ray of sunshine
For all of us to share . . .

To see each of you finish another year of school, and to observe you as you demonstrate further growth and development, gives this administrator a feeling of pride and satisfaction for what you have done for yourselves and the wonderful contribution that your teachers have made in the progress of your advancement.

Life is barren unless one has something to live for. Living should be more than existing and waiting for a crisis to develop. Rich living involves striving for and making progress toward personal goals. Goals and interests in daily activities keep one going when difficulties are encountered.

Many of you have been involved in bringing honors to our school this year. We are proud of our student body and wish each of you the very best in the future.

Wood Working

Are these boys the future carpenters of America, or just the handymen of the decade? Anyhow, they work hard at perfecting their skills. Below, Randy Rochelle and David Morris put the finishing touches on a bookshelf. Opposite, Mr. Brown helps Scott get it together. Can you believe all the stuff that goes on down in the Dungeon?

DECA — '78

THE DECA CREED

I believe in the future which I am planning for myself in the field of distribution, and in the opportunities which my vocation offers.

I believe in fulfilling the highest measure of service to my vocation, my fellow beings, my country and my God — that by so doing, I will be rewarded with personal satisfaction and material wealth.

I believe in the democratic philosophies of private enterprise and competition, and in the freedoms of this nation — that these philosophies allow for the fullest development of my individual abilities.

I believe that by doing my best to live according to these high principles, I will be of greater service both to myself and to mankind.

OUTSTANDING!

The D.H.S. '77-'78 basketball teams have had one of the finest seasons ever and we are all proud of that fact. A few of our students were really outstanding. Donnie Husband (#55) played exceptionally well all season, taking Most Valuable Player in the SOSU tournament. Shirlene Lilley (#31) and Traci Walker (#20) also did a fine job. They were chosen for the all tournament team in the SOSU Invitational. D.H.S. basketball is looking even better for next year.

Tears and Confusion. Laughter and Relief

"THIS TURNING POINT IN OUR LIVES"

I just now looked back over my shoulder and deeply felt a vast ocean of memories engulf myself and take hold of all my senses.
They came in a continuous flow
until I begged them never cease.

I glance at the familiar faces of dear friends and the strange faces of those I never really knew.
I hear all the laughs and cries we've shared as I remember these early years
We've together lived through.

I feel a sudden surge of fear as I realize that I must now prepare myself to turn around — to face today and to look toward tomorrow,
With hopes of fulfillment for dreams
I have found.

Though the time has come for the Class of '78 to depart we shall never lose our memories of you, Durant High, for we will always possess the qualities inherited from you
And between us shall always exist
And never be broken, a bonded tie.

We say "Good-Bye," for we can now take this first step Just as children learning to walk, we too will learn.
May tomorrow bring us not only wealth and success, but also the happiness and acceptance,
For which we all secretly yearn.

By Sherri Dillard

The last few days of a senior year are always so different from the rest. The class of '78 came together. The emotional closeness of every senior was obvious, and it was without a doubt the most memorable time of the year.

We're gone now but the beautiful memories will bring us back again and again . . .
